Every Child Matters

For the first time, The Salvation Army Canada and Bermuda Territory will officially observe Orange Shirt Day and has created our SA Orange Shirt in consultation with the Orange Shirt Society. Commissioners Floyd and Tracey Tidd, territorial leaders, are encouraging every officer, employee, soldier, adherent, volunteer and friend of the Army to order orange shirts designed and authorized exclusively for The Salvation Army by an Indigenous Salvationist artist—and wear them on September 30, 2021, to show their support. Share photos of you and your staff/congregations in your orange shirts on your personal and Salvation Army social media pages with positive messages of support.

What Is Orange Shirt Day?

The Orange Shirt Society is a non-profit organization in Williams Lake, B.C., that exists to:

- support Indian residential school reconciliation
- create awareness of the individual, family and community inter-generational impacts of Indian residential schools through Orange Shirt Society activities
- create awareness of the concept of “Every Child Matters”
