

Territorial Celebration of Culture T-Shirt

The Celebration of Culture is an annual event supported by The Salvation Army in partnership with Indigenous Pathways. This year the planning committee invited an Indigenous artist to create a logo specific to our event theme, Stories of the Land.

Artist Bio:

Hilda Nyce is a 25 year old Nisga'a woman from Gitwinksihlkw. Her Nisga'a name is Yawin wan. Painting landscapes is a way Hilda connects with Creator. She also loves to cook and bless family and friends with her creative baking.

Her painting:

The stories of the land painting connects with the Hobiye story of the Nisga'a nation. It celebrates a new beginning and a new year. The river and trees remind her of her home in the beautiful Nass valley.
