UNITY SERIES 2022

This popular small ensemble journal continues to include music from composers around the world. Included in this year's publication is Canadian composer Marcus Venables who brings a fun setting on the Graham Kendrick song 'Shine, Jesus shine' and a new Festival March, 'Light Force' from Stephen Gibson of Bedlington in the United Kingdom. Australian composer Sam Creamer is featured in a fun up-tempo setting of the Christmas Carol 'Glory in the highest' and Gary Rose, from Kettering in the United Kingdom, brings a setting of the favourite Keith and Kristyn Getty contemporary song 'See what a morning!' This journal is accompanied by demonstration recordings.

TRIUMPH SERIES

New and established composers are featured within this year's Triumph Series journal including Norwegian composer Morgan Stavik with a March 'Joyful Tidings', a devotional setting of the chorus 'Whisper a prayer in the morning' by Andrew Blyth of Music Editorial and an attractive laid-back setting of the favourite hymn tune, 'The old rugged cross', by Eiliv Herikstad from Norway. These names are included along with other composers such as Steve Kellner, Noel Jones and Kenneth Downie.

These pieces are also now available for the first time as digital downloads from The Salvation Army Music Index. When completing your subscription form, please choose the 'digital download' option if required in this format.

JUDD STREET COLLECTION

This year's titles include a compelling brass work by established Hollywood composer Bruce Broughton entitled 'Lead kindly light'. Also included is a major work, written by Major Martin Cordner, entitled 'Pulse'. This piece was originally written for the United Kingdom Territorial Youth Band in 2017 and features the tunes 'Refiner's Fire' and 'Teach me to dance', along with original thematic material from the composer. There is also included a Trumpet Solo, 'Easter Hymn' by Ray Steadman-Allen and a Flugel Horn Solo by Alan Williams of Music Editorial entitled 'Sweet Name'. This extended swing setting for the Flugel features the popular song, 'The Saviour's name'. Other composers include Paul Sharman, Nicholas Samuel, Ruben Schmidt and Andreas Holmlund.

These pieces are also now available for the first time as digital downloads from The Salvation Army Music Index. When completing your subscription form, please choose the 'digital download' option if required in this format.
