SING TO THE LORD CHILDREN'S VOICES

Music titles include 'Stopped in my tracks' by Kay Moorby and Simon Gash, a bright up-tempo setting that will be popular with many groups. Scripture verses are quoted in several of the pieces with one such item being a beautiful setting of Philippians 4 verse 7 by Jonathan Mead of Moriston Corps, South Wales. All music is accompanied with a demonstration and backing recording and includes helpful bible references, activities and written resources to compliment the songs.

SING TO THE LORD MIXED VOICES

Once again, this journal continues to bring new works for mixed voice vocal groups, that are ideal for the week-to-week ministry. This year the series will also feature items written in three-part SAB (Soprano, Alto, Bass) format. The books include songs, written by Salvationists from across the world, to meet the needs for each part of the Christian calendar. In addition to established writers such as Kenneth Downie, Yvonne Field, Chris Brindley and Harold Burgmayer, this journal also introduces some new writers such as Colin Fisher, Peter Webber and Gillian McCredie. The music is accompanied with a demonstration and backing recording.
