TSA YEAR BOOK 2025

The Salvation Army Year Book 2025 captures the worldwide ministry of The Salvation Army. Its 400-plus pages contain reports from all 134 countries in which it serves, photographs, up-to-date facts and figures, and articles addressing how the Army is responding to global issues. In the foreword, General Lyndon Buckingham, international leader of The Salvation Army, shares that the 2025 Year Book 'inspires us to believe that God is far from done with The Salvation Army'.

Articles' focus: the Army's work with displaced people and refugees; Compass: the Global Strategic Framework; election-preparedness; and reflections from members of the International Children & Young People Advisory Group.
