UNITY SERIES 2026

This popular small ensemble journal continues to include music from composers around the world. Included in this year's publication is Canadian writer Marcus Venables who brings a bright work entitled 'Sing a praise celebration'. Also included is a light and enjoyable setting of the old melody 'Whosoever will may come' by Noel Jones and an up-beat setting of the old chorus 'Deep and wide' by Zachary Doctor from the USA western territory. New composers include Samuel Ekong from Nigeria who has provided a fun setting of the song 'Winner Man' which is a happy and bright chorus which should prove popular among many groups.

These pieces are also available as digital downloads from The Salvation Army Music Index. When completing your subscription form, please choose the 'digital download' option if required in this format. Please note that all titles in this booklet may change without notice.

MAPLE LEAF BRASS

Subscribing to the MLB Journal gives you access to curated, high-quality, playable music for groups of 10+. The journal highlights new works from Canadian and Bermudian composers while welcoming Salvationist writers worldwide. Monthly releases include online score previews & audio samples. Your subscription keeps you connected to new music, supports developing composers, and ensures your group has a steady stream of new and inspiring material.

AMERICAN BAND JOURNAL

These compositions and arrangements for evangelism are produced twice yearly by the USA Eastern Territory. Each issue contains 3 or 4 titles. A free set of transposed parts in F and C are available upon request, the details of which are in the front of the score.

AMERICAN INSTRUMENTAL ENSEMBLE SERIES

The American Instrumental Ensemble Series, originally created for Salvation Army brass groups, is an annual flex-scored publication offering maximum versatility in ensemble size and instrumentation. With four main parts, an optional fifth, two optional percussion parts, and a supportive keyboard line, the music works for anything from small quartets to full orchestras. Any mix of brass, woodwind, or strings can be used, and optional editorial suggestions help add color for larger groups, though directors are free to adapt as they wish. These flexible evangelistic compositions from the USA Southern Territory come in four grades, each released as a set of four titles. Every piece includes a score, multi-key parts, and adaptable arrangements for wind band or orchestra. The four grades are:

Grade 1 - Very Easy | Grade 2 - Easy | Grade 3 - Intermediate | Grade 4 - Advanced
